WATERFORD

ICONS THAT BOND GENERATIONS

Established in 1783 in Waterford, Ireland, by the Penrose brothers, Waterford harnesses Ireland's powerful elements to produce hand-crafted luxury crystal. Using mastery of technique, and honing skills that have been passed from generation to generation, their elite hand-craftsmanship, precision skill and artistic excellence continue to produce some of the most sought after luxury crystal in the world.

Desired by collectors and connoisseurs around the world, Waterford crystal has graced the hands of Kings, Queens, Presidents and sporting legends. Waterford – Icons that bond generations.

Though the exact details of Ireland's glass-making traditions are lost in the mists of time, there is sufficient archaeological evidence that shows glass was regarded with respect from as early as the Iron Age, around 500 BC, along with medieval documents also proving that glass-making took place in Ireland back in the middle 13th century. What happened between these dates may be a mystery, but what is clear is that the Irish have an innate affinity for glass-making that spans millennia.

At Waterford, we're honoured to hold such an illustrious and pivotal role in this artisanal tapestry - one which propelled primitive glass-making processes into luxury crystal manufacture.

WATERFORD ESTABLISHED

Waterford was first established in 1783 in the heart of the Irish harbour town of Waterford by brother George and William Penrose. Their vision was to "create the finest quality crystal for drinking vessels and objects of beauty for the home."

1800

FIRST GLASS MAKING FACTORY

The Penrose brothers opened the first glassmaking factory in Waterford in 1783, where their crystal was immediately recognised for its clarity and purity of colour. They enjoyed success well into the 1800s until they had to close their doors.

LISMORE

The now iconic Lismore pattern was first created in 1952 by Miroslav Havel. Drawing inspiration from the gothic architecture of Lismore Castle in County Waterford, this pattern features intricate diamond and wedge cuts.

1965

WESTMINSTER ABBEY

The Guinness family presented sixteen crystal chandeliers to hang in Westminster in 1965, marking the Abbey's 900th anniversary. They are ten feet high and three feet wide, with each one composed of just under 500 pieces of individual glass drops that were shaped by hand.

2003

TIMES SQUARE

Since the millennium in 2000, Waterford has been fitting the Times Square Ball in New York with brilliant crystal panels for the New Year's Eve ball drop, seen by millions of eyes from all over the world.

POST WORLD WAR II RESURGENCE

The story resumes in 1947 when Miroslav Havel was hired as Chief Designer for his fledgling glassmaking operation in Ireland. Havel studied surviving examples of the Penrose brothers' crystal, with the patterns became the design basis for the growing product range of the new company.

KENNEDY BOWL

On the 17th March 1961, President John F Kennedy was presented with an arrangement of shamrocks in a Waterford Oval Bowl at the White House by the Ambassador of Ireland, later known as the Kennedy Bowl.

2000's

DESIGNER PARTNERSHIPS

Forming collaborations and partnerships with leading designers in the world of fashion and luxury living has elevated our products to an unrivalled level of excellence and sophistication.

PRESENT

REBIRTH OF A TIMELESS ICON

Waterford is evolving from its past to place it confidently into the heart of the 21st century home. Through a new design aesthetic, our rich history of craftsmanship, our dedication to innovation, and our love for contemporary design, we're placing ourselves in special moments enjoyed around the world.

WATERFORD

IRELAND 1783

CRAFTSMANSHIP

Whilst the fine art of crafting luxury crystal has benefited from two centuries of technological advances, the 21st century process would not be unfamiliar to our 18th century founders, George and William Penrose.

Technology is no replacement for proficiency, and our Master Craftsmen possess exemplary artisanal talent. Each must complete an eight-year long apprenticeship to learn each skill required for our production process before mastering these techniques through decades of perfection. Their elite hand-craftsmanship, precision skill and artistic excellence continue to be among the core components that transform the finest raw materials into the pinnacle of luxury crystal.

DESIGN

With imagination and artistic vision, our designers capture the spirit of exciting new themes and ideas in the blank canvas of pristine fine crystal.

02

MOULDING

An age-old technique, timber moulds and hand tools of beech and pear woods are used by our Master Blowers to shape the molten crystal.

03

MELTING

We use a continuous melting furnace where the finest of raw materials are used to produce the clearest and most refined crystal in the world.

04

BLOWING

Using a furnace that reaches temperatures of 1,400°C, our Master Craftsmen meticulously manipulate and transform molten balls of red hot crystal into elegant shapes.

05

INSPECTION

Each crystal masterpiece is carefully inspected after each stage of production. Pieces must adhere to our strict quality standards and pass six stringent inspections.

06

HAND MARKING

Prior to cutting, each piece is temporarily marked with a geometric grid to assist the Master Cutter in transferring the pattern onto the crystal.

CUTTING

Our Master Cutters practice two types of cutting: Wedge Cutting and Flat Cutting. Diamond-tipped wheels apply the highest quality cut, adorning the crystal with carefully crafted facets.

08

POLISHING

Once cut, the piece is then thoroughly polished to remove rough edges, produce a luxurious and smooth feel, and bring forth the trademark brilliance of Waterford.

SCULPTING & ENGRAVING

Our Master Sculptor works three-dimensionally to sculpt his creation from a solid block of crystal. Engraving can be added with a copper wheel. The deeper the engraver etches into the crystal, the more prominent the object appears.

Our Master Craftsmen harness the Irish elements to expertly craft luxury crystal by hand, utilising many techniques established over 200 years ago that are still relevant today.

CELEBRATING EXCELLENCE FOR GENERATIONS

Waterford has a long tradition in creating spectacular crystal trophies, handmade in Ireland. Our bespoke trophy awards celebrate excellence at the most prestigious global sporting and cultural events.

Iconic commissions are brought to life by mouth-blowing molten crystal to the desired bespoke shapes by our craftspeople, who revel in their tireless pursuit of handcrafted excellence, using timeless techniques to create the sharpest cuts and engravings, bringing out the brilliance of your bespoke treasure.

STELLAR

MASTERCRAFT

Over 5000 years ago, Ireland's stargazing heritage was embedded in its soil, as early civilizations built the megalithic sites at Newgrange and Loughcrew to reveal astronomical secrets, record and capture solar events and even map the constellations.

Millenia later, and our fascination with the night sky has not wavered. Hand-crafted at the House of Waterford in Ireland, the remarkable Stellar collection details the constellations in magnificent detail, celebrating humanities' fascination with the stars and the proficiency, precision and perfection of elite Irish craftsmanship.

An evolution of the classic Lismore pattern, distilling the cut to its essence offering a familiar yet soft approach to the gothic inspiration. Waterford can expose the purity of their crystal without hiding imperfections with heavy cuts.

INTERIORS

The Lismore story began in 1952, at the hands of Chief Designer Miroslav Havel. The pattern was an ode to the Gothic architecture of the 800-year-old Lismore Castle, inspired by the symmetry of the towers, pointed arches and elegant curves of the windows. This iconic pattern is cut into elegant interiors to elevate the home.

The Lismore Black collection is a fusion of technology and tradition. Rich opaque black colour infuses drama into Lismore, creating a glamorous take on the universally loved classic. This was inspired by the Blackwater River which surrounds Lismore Castle, protecting it for centuries. Lismore Black interiors make a bold statement in any home.

In 2024, the Winter Wonders Holly collection mimics distinctive, glossy spiky leaves contrasted with soft smooth winter berries, painstakingly rendered as patterns and cuts into Waterford crystal. It is truly wonderful that this festive evergreen shelters birds and gives hedgehogs a cosy place to hibernate in colder climates.

Available in clear and coloured crystal, the Winter Wonders collectible pieces honour an aspect of nature's wonders through stunning crystal artistry. Each year, a new theme and colour will highlight a unique wonder of nature, an evocative reminder of how beautiful our natural world can be.
